Contents

| Exercise - 1 | 2 |
|--|----|
| Steps to register a JavaScript in Model Driven App | 2 |
| Exercise – 2 | 8 |
| Getting a value of an attribute from form in showing it in alert | 8 |
| Exercise -3 | 10 |
| CRM Rest Builder | 11 |

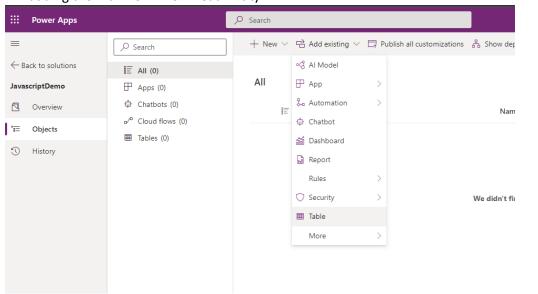

Exercise - 1

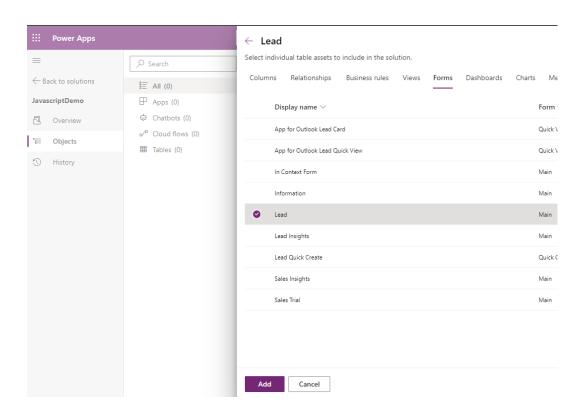

Steps to register a JavaScript in Model Driven App

- 1. Login to your environment
- 2. Go to https://make.powerapps.com/ portal
- 3. Select the appropriate environment in there, as per your need and set up of application

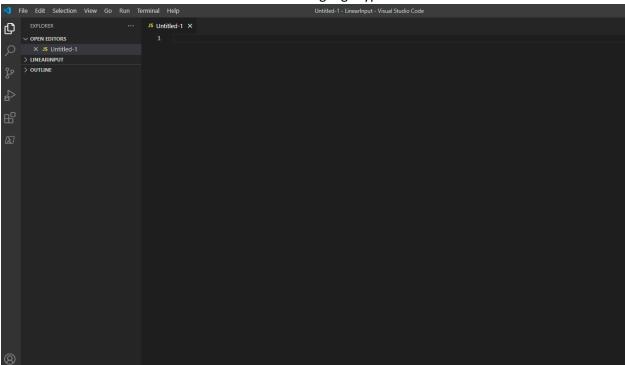

- 4. Go to solution tab from the left navigation on the screen
- 5. Create a new solution of your choice or you may select an existing solution
- 6. Open the solution and add the appropriate form to it
 - a. Am adding the Main form from Lead Entity

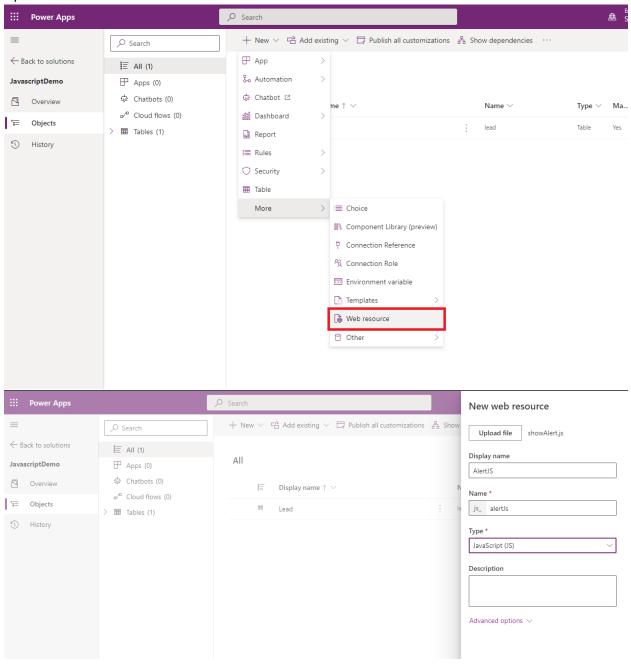

7. Open any of the code editor as per available – suggested are Visual Code: Visual Studio

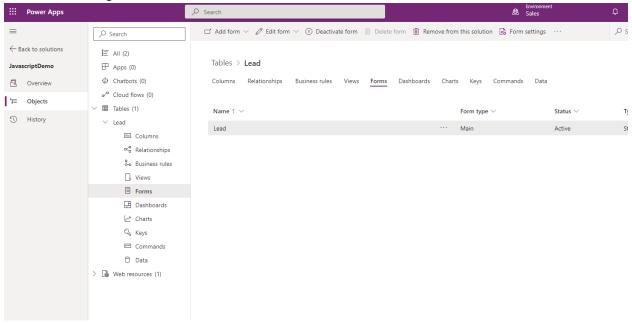

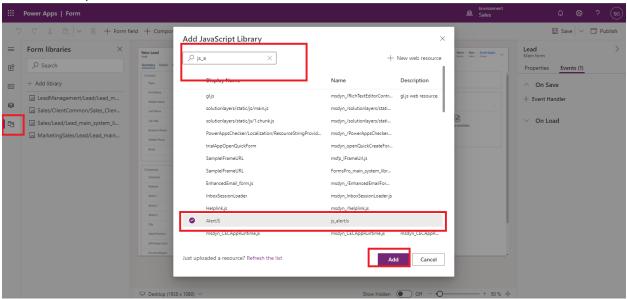

- Sample code as below function showAlert() {alert"Form alert")}
- 10. Save the file to any location of your choice
- 11. Open the solution add NEW

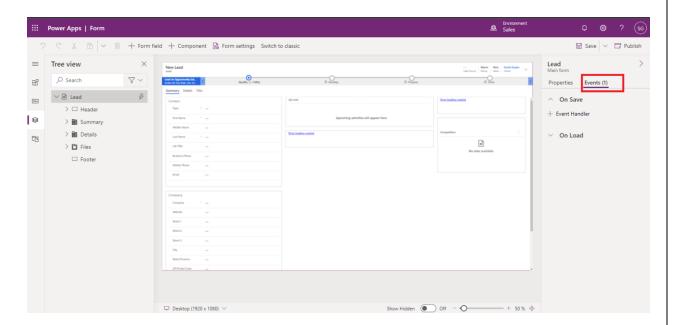

12. Select the form again – and now click on EDIT

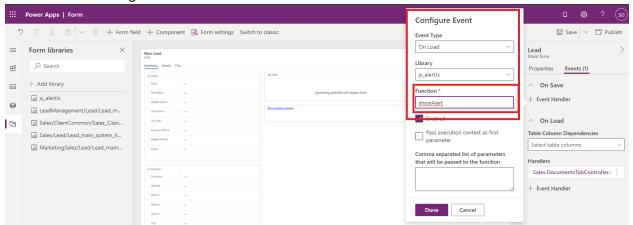

13. Add the library on the webform

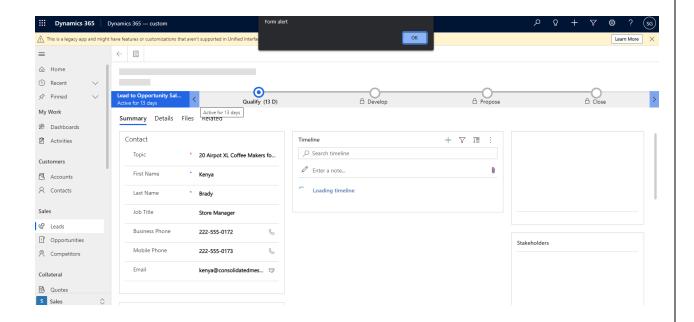

14. Click on the Events tab to associate the function to Form load event

15. Perform the following below actions on the webform

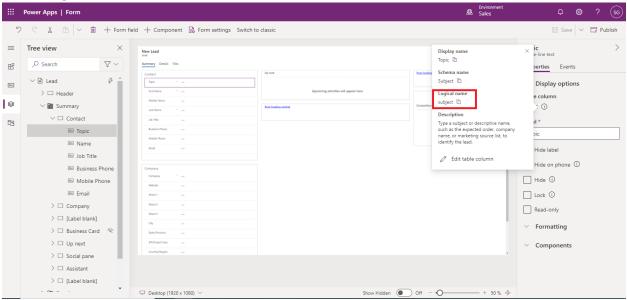

- 16. Save and publish the form
- 17. Open the lead form over which you have registered the code and you will be able to see an alert on load of form

Exercise – 2

Getting a value of an attribute from form in showing it in alert

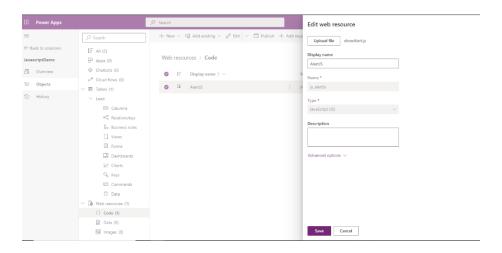

1. Get the logical name of the attribute from form editor

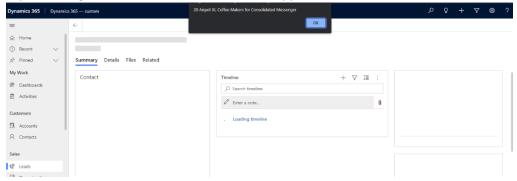

2. Code to be called on form load

```
function showAlertTitle()
{    var title = Xrm.Page.getAttribute("subject").getValue();
    alert(title);
}
```

3. Upload the updated code to the form

- 4. Register the function of Form Load Event
- 5. Save and publish the from
- 6. Try reloading the Lead form in Model Driven App

Exercise -3 Registering a function of change of attribute value

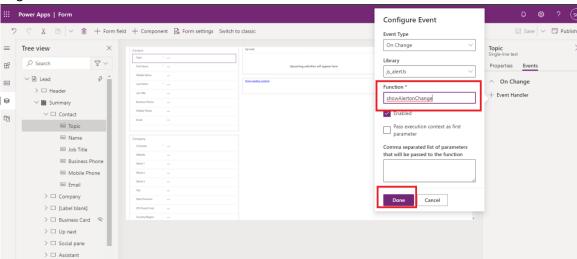

- 1. Open the java script file in visual code editor
- 2. Add a function of your choice function showAlertonChange()

{ var title = Xrm.Page.getAttribute("subject").getValue();

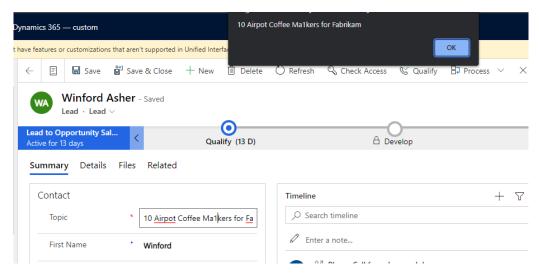

alert(title); }

- 3. Upload the code to solution
- 4. Open the form in edit mode
- 5. Register the function on Title attribute

6. Save and publish the form

7.

CRM Rest Builder

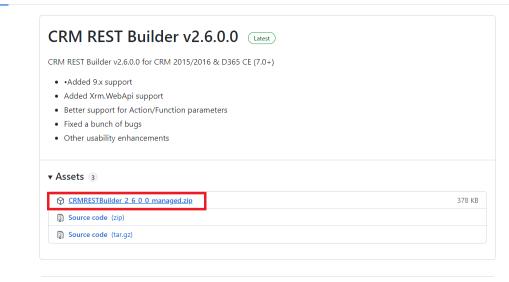

Oct 15, 2018

jlattimer

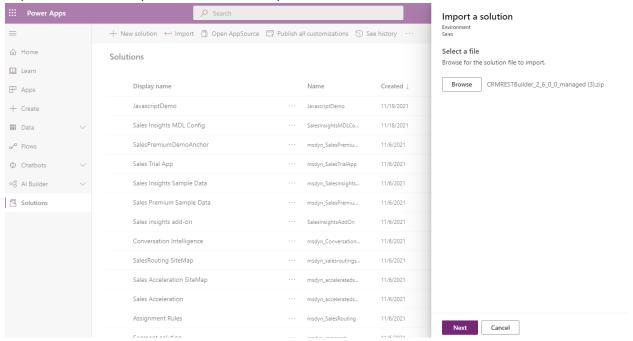

♦ 2.6.0.0♦ bb6de5a

Compare *

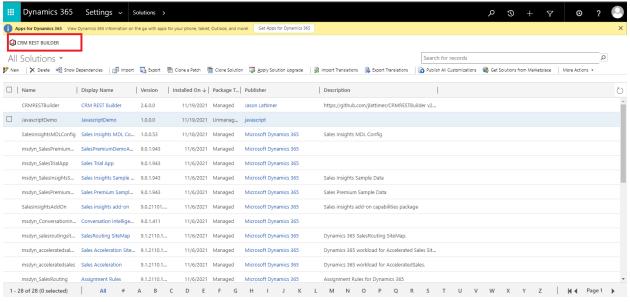

- 1. Open the URL -- https://github.com/jlattimer/CRMRESTBuilder
- 2. Click on the Releases and download the solution

3. Import the solution to your environment of Dynamics CRM

4. Click on this title to open the solution tab in advanced settings

5. Click on the tile to load the solution in new tab

